

Independent Management Consultancies Network IMCN

European

Professional

Personal

- As a network of highly qualified small management consultancies, we aim to provide the most competitive strategy consulting services to internationally and nationally operating clients.
- We have a membership network of over 200 management consultants in total, including:
 - Over 100 professional management consultants
 - Over 100 professional associate management consultants
- IMCN members represent many European countries and have international consulting experience in over 30 countries.
- We are able to communicate in over 12 languages.
- IMCN was founded in Brussels in 1994.
- On average, member firms have been established for 15 years.
- All members cover all or most of the general management consultancy services across a wide range of industries.